3. How much premium do I have to pay?

The rider's premium that you have to pay and the rider terms may vary depending on the underwriting requirements of the insurance company.

- The rider's estimated premium that you have to pay annually: Please refer to quotation
- Rider premium duration: one (1) year

Note:

- This rider provides a grace period of 60 days, which gives the Policyholder additional time to pay premium after the scheduled premium due date.
- The premium rate for this rider is not guaranteed and the Company reserves the right to revise the premium rate/insurance charge applicable at the time of renewal by giving 90 days written notice. Claims experience is one of the factors which may affect premium rate/insurance charge.

4. What are the fees and charges that I have to pay?

- (a) Commission - 10% of rider premium
- (b) Stamp Duty - refer to basic policy
- (c) Taxes - at the prevailing rate imposed by the Government

5. What are some of the key terms and conditions that I should be aware of?

- Importance of disclosure - you must disclose all material facts such as medical condition and state your age correctly.
- Free-look period - you may cancel your rider by returning the rider within 15 days after you have received the rider. MCIS Insurance Berhad will refund to you the premium that you have paid less any medical fee incurred.
- Premiums - MCIS Insurance Berhad reserves the right to revise the premium rates of this rider applicable at the time of renewal by giving you at least ninety (90) days advance written notice before the Policy Anniversary date.
- Unless renewed, the coverage will cease on expiry date and MCIS Insurance Berhad shall strictly not be liable.
- Rider switching - It may not be advantageous to replace your existing life or medical and health insurance rider with a new one as you may be subjected to new terms and conditions of the new rider or of the new insurer. If you intend to do so, we recommend that you consult your present insurer before making a final decision.

Note: This list is non-exhaustive. Please refer to the rider contract for the terms and conditions under this rider.

6. What are the major exclusions under this rider?
