MCIS Life Provides RM20,000 Aid To Family Of The Late Corporal Safwan Muhammad Ismail

Kajang, Selangor, 20 May 2020 – #PeopleHelpingPeople has a bigger purpose and meaning to life insurer MCIS Life, which came forward to provide financial aid to the family of the late Corporal Safwan Muhammad Ismail today.

Corporal Safwan died in an accident caused by a motorist whilst on duty at a roadblock during the movement control order on Lekas Highway, Kajang.

“We are deeply saddened by the loss of Corporal Safwan as he was among the frontliners of the nation, serving us during the Covid-19 pandemic,” said Encik Ahmad Zubir Aziz, Head of Agency Development, MCIS Life.

At the Kajang Police Headquarters earlier today to hand over a cheque of RM20,000 to the mother of the late Corporal Safwan, Ahmad Zubir added: “People Helping People” embodies what MCIS Life is all about as the demise of Corporal Safwan shook the nation. The 31-year-old frontliner was the sole breadwinner and we know that his family is facing unprecedented challenges. We are therefore stepping forward to provide some financial aid.

“We are grateful to MCIS Life. This assistance goes a long way in easing our financial burden, as the demise of our son remains an irreplaceable loss to our entire family,” Puan Norriza Mat Sani, mother of the deceased police officer, said emotionally.
